PromWorks will serve schools, students and their parents

Centennial, CO- The formation of PromWorks as the premier prom planning company in the United States was recently announced.

“Our goal is to offer our client schools turnkey proms featuring value and affordability to all schools desiring to provide their students with an exceptional prom experience,” said PromWorks CEO Bill Gunkel. “There is not another company in the special events industry which offers complete prom event planning with a turnkey, systemic approach,” he added.

Proms have become an iconic part of our American Culture. The majority of teenagers say that their prom “is the most important night of their lives;” making it a quintessential right of passage for high school students in the United States.

PromWorks will not only deliver personalized prom planning and the onsite management of the actual prom; Prom Works will also provide online discounted purchasing or rental of everything from formal wear, limousines, flowers to grooming services.

Customer service is the cornerstone of PromWorks. Our staff has a combined total of more than 50 years of special events experience. We have produced more than 6,000 local national and international conferences and special events. We are aggressively focusing on integrating technology to provide 100% customer satisfaction, exceptional quality, and solid product values.

PromWorks is part of the Reunions Unlimited family of companies, which also includes ReunionWorks.
